i am passing variables to it to use it for styling and then i want to pass it to ajax function but the ajax function doesn't want to accept these variables. Here is a console log: inside self calling function vars = undefined I want to use the values in the vars for asp.net control styling e.g. $(this).data("ui-collapsible-heading").toggleClass("ui-state-active ui-state-hover"); below is the original function, and the function that i am calling at this point. function goToLogin() { var vars = { name: "John Doe", password: "123456" }; var url = '@Url.Action("Login", "Manager")'; $.aj
